Bangladesh changes top foreign ministry bureaucrat

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Dhaka

Bangladesh's interim government of Muhammad Yunus on Thursday made a change to the top-level bureaucracy in the foreign ministry assigning a senior diplomat to temporarily discharge routine duties saying foreign secretary Jashim Uddin relinquished his responsibilities.

"A decision has been made that until further order, M Ruhul Alam Siddique will discharge the routine tasks of foreign secretary against the backdrop of foreign secretary Jashim Uddin's relinquishment of responsibilities," read a foreign ministry office order.

The brief order, signed by a foreign ministry director general, said it would be effective from May 23 and it was issued in public interest. The development came while media reports suggested that the government decided to remove Uddin around two weeks ago for "obscure reasons". The Daily Star newspaper two days ago said a sense of uncertainty prevailed in the foreign ministry over reports that Uddin would be removed
